Summary

I am a Systems and Computer Engineer with over 12 years of experience developing robust, high-transaction-volume applications. I am proficient in back-end development with a focus on Spring Framework. I'm also experienced in AWS services such as S3, ECR, ECS, and EKS. I have integrated Spring with services like Amazon S3 for file storage and have worked with APIs such as Google Static Maps to get client IP geolocation.

My skills include:

- Spring REST: HATEOAS, Swagger
- Spring Security: Authentication, authorization, JSON Web Token (JWT), roles, and permissions
- Spring Data: JPA, Hibernate
- Spring Test: JUnit, Mockito
- Messaging: ActiveMQ, JMS, and Kafka

My current project involves working on several microservices for ESPN channels. These services display various parts of the "BottomLine," including sponsors, brands, navigation panels, game results, and breaking news alerts.
